

THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES
PRESENTS

A SPECIAL INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP ON CHANGE MANAGEMENT

- PRESENTER: Richard Lehr, Esquire – Founding partner of Lehr, Middlebrooks and Vreeland, P.C. – a firm that practices labor and employment law on behalf of management.
- WHO SHOULD ATTEND: UA supervisors and leaders who effect change.
- SUBJECT: Change Management – From Confusion to Clarity
- WHERE: G-54 Rose Administration Building
- WHEN: Thursday, November 15, 2007 @ 9:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Richard Lehr was one of the most popular presenters in HR's Spring 2007 Leadership Forum. We are excited to have him back.

In this interactive workshop you will learn change management strategy including:

- Leadership's role as change agents at The University of Alabama
- Understanding and communicating the urgent need for change
- Preparing for change
- Resistance to change
- Conflicts arising from change and achieving conflict resolution
- Managing change
- Reinforcing change

Please register early. The sessions will be limited to 30 participants each.

Registration Information

Deadline: November 9, 2007

Registration Fee: $50 per person

For registration information, go to http://hr.ua.edu/forum/Lehr_workshop.htm

Payment methods - Payment can be made via Departmental Transfer